A Note From The Minister

It was a gray and rainy Sunday when we last gathered for worship. The weather didn't deter folks from gathering at 10:30 a.m. for a time of reflection, song and prayer. Thank you to Muriel Beckett for greeting everyone with a warm smile and a cheery "hello" and to Bob Gray who shared the scripture readings. The Choir loft was full as the Choir added much to the worship service with a lovely anthem, reminding us all of God's loving and steady presence.

It has been a busy couple of weeks in this ministry: the Finance Committee met to set the Draft 2026 Proposed Budget, the Photo Directory folks met to work toward completion of the new directory, the Lions arrived for supper one night, the Bible Study group met over coffee and baked goods, the Sunday School began rehearsals for the Christmas Pageant, Helen Harrison and Colleen Danard have been working at creating a new Remembrance Roll, and all the while the Fall Auction planning team pulled everything together for this Friday evening. There is never a dull moment at KSZK United!

I do hope you plan on joining us Friday evening, the auction is always full of laughter and good cheer! And, Sunday morning worship will begin early this week with me hosting the Sunday Morning Worship Show on The New CFOS at 8:35 a.m. followed by a 10:30 a.m. service at the Kemble-Sarawak United Church.

Go Jays Go!!!

Rev. Heather McCarrel
