Message From The Minister

What an exciting week in the ministry of KSKZ United! We began the week not with one but two opportunities for worship on Sunday October 20th. The Kemble-Sarawak United Church held their worship service along with Sunday School and a lovely time of Fellowship in the morning followed by the Zion-Keppel United Church holding their worship service and Fellowship at 1:00 p.m. in the afternoon.

The Kemble-Sarawak United Church continued to be busy as the Stewards set up for the Annual Auction. This promises to be a Friday evening of laughter and fun; plan on joining us!

In this week's OTH there is a new column. A few weeks back a subscriber to the OTH suggested I give the Bio. of one of the original 12 disciples each week for 12 weeks. This is the first of those 12 weeks and I begin with the first disciple called by Jesus. This column will be done in a "Wikipedia" style each week and I hope it is well received.

You won't want to miss worship on Sunday Oct. 27th as we will be choosing the next Bible Trivia Champ! Worship will begin at 8:00 a.m. on CFOS with a second service at 10:30 a.m. at the church.

Looking forward to seeing you Sunday,
Rev. Heather

We Hold in Our Prayers:

Loving Lord, we lift to you those who are suffering in body, mind or spirit.

So many people are facing all kinds of trials due to ill health, conflict, poverty and injustice. As Jesus teaches us in the Lord's prayer, we ask that your kingdom come, and your will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.

Please comfort those who are in despair and help your followers be moved with compassion to share your love. Amen.

Please send all Joyful Celebrations & Prayer Requests to kszkunited@gmail.com

Andrew: The first Disciple called by Jesus

Born: Capernaum, the eldest child in a family of five, himself, his brother Simon, and three sisters.

Died: crucified in Patrae in Achaia in 60 AD; crucified upside down on an X shaped cross

Discipleship: A.D. 26, the year he was chosen as an apostle, Andrew was 33, a full year older than Jesus and the oldest of the apostles.

When he became an apostle, Andrew was unmarried but made his home with his married brother, Simon Peter. Both were fishermen and partners of James and John the sons of Zebedee. After Jesus' ascension Andrew journeyed through Armenia, Asia Minor, and Macedonia and, after bringing many thousands into the Christian faith he was apprehended and crucified in Patrae in Achaia in 60 AD.

Legacy: Very soon after Jesus' ascension, Andrew began writing a personal account of Jesus' sayings. After Andrew's death copies of this private record circulated among the early teachers of the Christian church. These informal notes of Andrew's were subsequently edited, amended, altered, and added to until they made up a fairly consecutive narrative of the life of Christ. (Taken from the THE URANTIA BOOK)
